Exploring Twickenham

Twickenham, well known as the home of rugby, with the iconic Twickenham Stadium and Harlequins at The Stoop, is also a thriving, riverside town full of quirky shops, fabulous pubs, diverse restaurants, a vibrant cultural scene and a rich musical history. All set alongside one of the most beautiful and accessible stretches of the River Thames.

It includes the recently pedestrianised Church Street at its heart. A destination location for meet ups with superb pubs, cafes, restaurants and unique shops.

Twickenham's high quality but unpretentious architecture includes gems such as Marble Hill House, Orleans House, York House and the celebrated 'Naked Ladies' fountains.

Enjoy the bucolic charm of Twickenham Green with its excellent selection of pubs and restaurants. Or try a walk down Cross Deep to Strawberry Hill House, Britain's finest example of Georgian Gothic Revival architecture.

Music Heritage

Twickenham's unique place in popular musical history, centred on Eel Pie Island, features early performances of global icons such as The Rolling Stones, David Bowie, Eric Clapton, Rod Stewart and Pink Floyd as well as inspirational black American blues musicians such as Muddy Waters. Eel Pie Island Museum is well worth a visit to learn more. Twickenham Stadium has hosted concerts by major stars including the Rolling Stones, Beyonce and Metallica.

Art and Culture

Twickenham is home to Orleans House Gallery, Strawberry Hill House, Marble Hill House and Ham House (via the foot ferry at Marble Hill Park). Turner's House in St. Margarets has recently opened after major restoration and The Exchange is our newest performance and events venue and is located opposite Twickenham station. The Mary Wallace Theatre by Twickenham's Riverside Embankment is the home of the Richmond Shakespeare Society. An intimate theatre where plays from all eras are staged.
